_____)

In preparation for sentencing in this matter, undersigned counsel visited the U.S. Probation Office to review victim responses regarding restitution in this case. In the course of examining these responses for accuracy, counsel reviewed the statements by many victims, and counsel believes it would assist in the education and rehabilitation of Mr. Brown for him to review these responses personally as well.

The Probation Office has made redacted copies of the responses that protect against disclosure of any personal information and agreed to allow Mr. Brown to review the redacted responses at the Probation office. Counsel for the United States has been contacted and has no objection to this procedure. However, the Probation Office requests an order from this court permitting such a procedure to occur.

1 Defendant therefore requests that this court issue the attached
2 proposed order.

Respectfully submitted,
